The Markers Were Placed, The Bell Rang;

The Students Moved Forward . . .

- ← At the sound of the bell, Robert Leaphart, Mike Hubbard, and friends, advance one class.
- ↑ At a football game, the pep squad illuminates a dark night with an expression of Poly pride.
- ↑ The vocalist from "Freeway" entertains at the Homecoming Dance.
- Leslie Sullivan and Brian Crance catch "Disco Fever" at the Homecoming Dance.

According to Hoyle, "games have many forms and are played differently in different lands and communities, but the basic principle is the same everywhere." Poly High School provides the game board, and sets directions for its players, as the students advance toward their educational goals. While all follow administrative guidelines, each student must develop his own strategy and set his own pace. Thus, the game plans are diversified and games of skill and games of chance, games for few players and games for many players, are all used in the process of advancement at Poly.

- ← Playing peek-a-boo, Geoff Holtzrichter catches the camera's eye.
- ↑ Worried about the California sun, Randy Ingram plays hide and seek behind tinted shades.
- ↓ Poly spirit lights up the sky at Homecoming.

- Gordy Pulsifer and Randy Harvey look for likely feminine prospects in the dating game.
- ↑ Wondering what the next move will be, this Polyite strolls along one pace and prepares for another turn.
 - ↓ Feeling an air of Sophomore superiority, Chip Hord anticipates the added glory of becoming a Junior.

- ↑ Claire Binder mimed her way through the picnic activities, which is difficult for a freshman girl.
- ↑ Bobby Alvarez and Mary Jane Flores enjoy a tender moment.

The day was sunny and pleasant for our homecoming activities. It began with a parade of colorful floats. Next a picnic with all the trimmings. There was food, drink, sack races, a pep rally, a make-up booth, a pumpkin pie contest, pumpkin carving contest, and friends both old and new. The day turned into night and the excitement mounted. The football team played Barstow, which to the disappointment of all, we lost. The half-time show crackled with anticipation as the queen was announced. There was fireworks which graced the evening with class, and the Poly band provided the music. But, before the evening came to a close there was the annual homecoming dance for students and alumni. The band "Freeway" played the popular disco and mellow songs of the time. And as the day finished the students of Poly had many memories of this day.

Sadie Hawkins

Setting: Riverside California, January 1979.

Characters: Poly High School Students.

Amy: (Thinking) Well this is my 3rd try to get a date for the Mid-Winter. I hope this one works (3rd time is a charm).

The phone is ringing

Joe: (Thinking) Boy I sure hope I get asked to the dance. This waiting game is tough business. (Phone is ringing) Guess I'd better answer that stupid phone if no one else will.

Amy: "Hello, is Joe home?" (Amy is nervous)

Joe: "Yea, this is me. Who is this?"

Amy: "This is Amy, and I was wondering if you would mind going to the Mid-Winter with me?"

Kevin Boling went stag.
All girls go back 3 spaces.

Found a quiet corner and no one interrupted. Lose one turn and have fun!

Spilled your soup at dinner.
Return home.

Strikes Again

Amy: (Cont.) I'll pay for everything and even drive. Its on February 24 at 9:00.

Joe: (Thinking, she sure talks fast) What do I have to wear? Where could we eat?

Amy: The dance is semi-formal, which means suits, but you don't have to wear a tie if you don't want. We can eat wherever you like.

Joe: Well, it sounds pretty good. I don't dance very well, is that O.K.?

Amy: Sure, that's fine! Well I gotta go. Bye!

Joe: See you tomorrow. Bye! (Thinking, boy am I excited!)

The night of the ball: (The theme: "There Comes a Time") The time came and they had a ball!

Dreaded the night, but your date Surprised you. Move ahead 5 spaces.

Fooled You! No good-night kiss! Ha-Ha? Go back 10 spaces.

Mrs. Betty James, biology teacher, aids with the refreshments and Debbie King and Jeff Myers take advantage of this help.

Randy Ingram discos in Spanish style with his boutonniere in his mouth instead of on his lapel.

A balcony view of some of the 200 couples present at the ball who danced to the band "Sojourn".

Jim Lord eyes the camera while his date Kris Ochocki has eyes only for Jim.

Jerry Rule and Tina Braggs move to a more romantic atmosphere by dancing under the stars.

Leslie Sullivan, Mrs. Barbara Clarence, and Jennifer Holzrichter listen intently as the policeman tells of the best places to find missing couples.

Brian Marchando tries to persuade Frances Newman to dance some more but she refuses because she's tired and her feet hurt.

Mrs. Patricia Snelgrove grimaces as she sits through three hours of blaring music.

The 2nd annual Sadie Hawkins Mid-Winter Ball came off as a smashing success. The decoration committee decked the area with fresh daisies, which was organized by Laura Rines and her assistant Jeff Miller with the constant support of Laura's mother, Mary Rines. The refreshments were provided by the Girls' League. Thanks also were do to the 33 volunteer chaperones.

Winning Is The

The Spirit Week, sponsored by the Pep Squad, was held during the week of March 12-16. Monday was pajama day and events included blindfold contest and bottle drinking. Tuesday was twin day and events included a 3-legged race and a yogurt toss.

Wednesday was surfer day and events included a skateboard contest and an egg toss. Thursday was crazy hat day and there was a pie eating contest and kiss-a-pig. Friday was 50's day and there was a dance that evening. The Sophomores won with 58 points, the Freshmen followed with 52, Juniors had 47, and the Seniors pulled through with 31.

→ The Pep Squad models next years uniforms as they conduct lunch time activities.

↑↑ Jeff French, Robby Albrecht, Kevin Boling, and Rod Muller quickly fumble with their cards as a girl in a skimpy bikini goes by. Gordy Pulsifer receives a standing ovation as he roles down the aisle on surfer day. Mr. Cummings proves that even teachers get involved in Spirit Week. Alyssa Charkow yells at Sue Richardson for getting her colors mixed up, while Michele Miller and Patty Robinson look away in disgust.

Name Of The Game

- ← David Pooley and Finn Comer prove that height is a big advantage at the net.
- ↓ Bob Bushman and Bob Ritzau are always near to make sure things go smoothly.

Poly began an Intramural program this year. The idea came from Bob Ritzau and Bob Bushman, and they ran all the events. The freethrow tournament was won by Walt Linaweaver. Backgammon was won by David Eckmann in the advanced and Jeff Meachem in the novice division. Volleyball advanced division was won by Bob Bushman and Coach Almquist and David Pooley and Finn Comer took the novice division. Danny Metsch won the frisbee golf tournament. Events held during 4th quarter included: water polo, baseball, chess, tennis, ping-pong, and frisbee.

- ↑ Eric Edwards drops another basket on his way to the finals.
- ↑ Susan Bobach and Brenda Benter begin play on the frisbee golf course.
- ← Jeff French throws his frisbee into "Dell's Well" while Jay Gaskins looks for his.

E. Teresa, A. Steward, M. Sharp, T. Ivey, P. Cates, and G. Rosenberg sing about "How Lovely" it is "to be a Woman". Charlotte Ransom and Tina Ivey stand around looking for some likely fellas.

From The Rock Of The 50

"Bye Bye Birdie" marked the opening of the '78-'79 season of Poly's Theatre. This play was a parody of the life of Elvis Presley.

"When You Comin' Back, Red Ryder" was the second production of Poly Theatre. It was performed in the newly opened Studio One. The show ran in repertory with "Of Mice and Men," and was set in a peaceful diner in New Mexico. The date was the early 60's. All was well that Sunday morning until the arrival of Teddy and Cheryl, a young couple en route to Mexico.

Out At Poly

Poly Jesters and I.T.S. have had a busy and productive year. Jesters took many theatre related trips to such places as N.B.C. Studios, Los Angeles, and the University of Redlands. They saw performances of Annie, Timbuktu, Vanities, Steambath, and Company. In fund raising events Jesters excelled. They sponsored a Musical-Comedy dance class, a Mime Workshop, an Acting Workshop, and finally they hosted a performance of the dance troupe "Encore Players." The experience and technique gained from these workshops was shown by the high honors earned at the Ramona High School Masquers and the R.C.C. festival/competitions. They also benefited financially. I.T.S. went on a retreat to the mountains. The intermediate acting class put on "Dark of the Moon" which depicted the love between a mortal girl and a witch boy.

- ↑ Mrs. Ashe, Mrs. Weaver, Mr. Roberts, Coach Meyers, and Mr. Ficarra are faced with a tough decision during class competition.
- Keith Maxcy and Kevin Allman unknowingly remove articles of clothing during the hypnotist assembly.
- The Freshmen cheerleaders show the audience that they are very seldom synchronized.

This year Poly had to make a switch in the Commissioners of Assembly. The original commissioner, Jan Clarence, graduated mid-term, so an election was held to put the responsibility on somebody else. Jeff Miller became the Commissioner of Assemblies for the second semester. Assemblies that were held later in the year involved a comedy and mime show put on by Radio Free M*I*M*E, and a concert of gospel music by the Compton Boy's Choir.

This school year was the year for students and faculty to get involved. The year began with the student-faculty tennis tournament. The matches were all doubles and all three divisions played round-robin with single set competition. The winners were: student-student division, Joe Nelson and Libby Joseph; student-faculty division, Tim Hanigan and Barbara Clarence; and the faculty-faculty division, Ray Harris and Marjorie Kross. The next sports event was the inter-class track meet which was to determine the ruling class. In the competition between the classes, the Freshman competed against the Sophomores, and the Juniors competed against the Seniors. In this competition the Freshman and the Juniors won with scores respectively (Fr.) 198-(Soph.) 188 and (Jr.) 178-(Sr.) 162. The ruling that finalized the score is; if a relay team member hands off to a non-member, that team shall be disqualified. Because of this ruling, the Juniors were declared the champs and the ruling class for the '78-'79 school year. The class rankings went: Juniors (18 pts.), Seniors (14 pts.), Freshman (13 pts.) and the Sophomores (12 pts.)

The Athletic

Ted Milner concentrates on his breathing and does not realize that he is running on air.

Junior Terry Shaw puts forth total effort for the sake of his class in the inter-class track meet.

Stever Nordeen, science teacher and coach, is forced to take a detour because student Eric Edwards blocks his path to the basket.

Way To Victory

Another athletic event which involved both students and faculty was the student-faculty basketball game. The faculty won with a score of 25 to 24. The low score is because the game was played during a single lunch. The announcer was the humorous Tom Bennett. Attendance: Lots of people cheering and loud. Top scorers: (Fac.) Joe Giant- (Stud.) Randy Harvey. Top Foulers: (Fac.) Steve Nordeen (3)-(Stud.) Walt Linaweaver (4).

Dion Archie, Tim Kahl, Lynne Woodhouse, Cathy Friend, and Kris Williams.

David Eckmann narrates the Christmas story during the '78 Christmas Concert while the choir tells the story in song.

T. Johnston, director of the vocal music department, introduces the Chamber Singers' next song.

This year the Chamber Singers were particularly busy because the Christmas vacation did not begin until December 22. They averaged two performances a day between December 2 and December 22. Although the group rarely sang with more than sixteen of its twenty members because of the Russian flu, the Chamber Singers made all of their engagements and earned a lot of money.

The Master Chorale and Concert Choir followed tradition by attending the Chapman College Festival and the County Festival. They held their pop concert for two nights this year to encourage more Poly students to attend. The Christmas Concert featured a procession by candlelight which was a great success.

The Instrumental Music Department is composed of Orchestra, Stage Band, Wind Ensemble, and Concert Band. All of the groups performed at a Christmas Concert, a Pop Concert, and a Spring Concert here at Poly, besides various other festivals throughout the year. To raise money for going on tour, all the groups sponsored fund raisers. Stage Band played during most home basket ball games and for community groups. Pojai Pookakupt, and AFS student from Thailand, played piano for the orchestra during her stay at Poly.

The Spirit Of Poly

Carolyn Kightlinger, Terri Thurman, (Parliamentarian), Pam Barnett, Angela Morris (President), Mark Bender (Historian), Patti Monroe, Not Shown: Delorie Barber (Vice-President), Marie DiPidova (Reporter), Lisa Thomas.

The F.B.L.A. (Future Business Leaders of America), shown on the lower left hand page, contained only students who were enrolled in a business class. This year they attended the convention in Anaheim and took two 3rd places. Patty Peters took 3rd in office procedures and Laura Swaney took 3rd in accounting. The F.B.L.A. also sponsored the successful 50's Day Dance and were involved in Several other school events.

The Activities Council, shown below, is responsible for helping the Commission plan most of the activities. They were mainly responsible for the great decorations at the Homecoming Dance and the Midwinter Ball. They also organized the student-faculty basketball game and helped to plan the activities for single lunches. This is the club to belong to if anyone wishes to become more involved in the Student Government.

Lives On

Irma L. Sutton, born in 1937, began teaching at Poly in September of 1970. Before she had started her teaching at Poly she taught at Sierra Middle School and North High School. Mrs. Sutton began at Poly as a teacher of French, Black Studies, Black History, and was also a part time counselor. She soon became recognized as an excellent counselor and, other than teaching French, devoted all her time to helping students. Mrs. Sutton also became very active as a BSU Club sponsor. She was not only respected in the schools but was also known as a marvelous poet. Her short book of poetry Requiem for a Fine Lady "glows with a personal intensity that will ignite the imagination of every reader." The book is divided into 4 parts: (1) "fine ladies," (2) songs of love, (3) cosmic sphere from the personal (Ghetto life), (4) speaking to special people (such as Muhammad Ali). Her best known poem, "Four Stages of Love" was published in U.S. in Clover '76 along with the works of other upcoming poets. Mrs. Sutton's blossoming career was suddenly ended in the summer of 1978 when she was involved in a fatal automobile collision. In order to rightly remember the beloved Irma Sutton a memorial was erected in her honor. Donated to the memorial was a lovely portrait painted by Karl Marshall. Below the portrait, a plaque contains the words: "Requiem for a Fine Lady"/Irma L. Sutton/1937-1978/Poet- Teacher/Counselor-Friend. This portrait and these words shall allow Irma L. Sutton to live on in the hearts and minds of students for many years to come.

Poly Clubs Helped

The Key Club is a group sponsored by the Riverside Kiwanis Club. Their main project during the year was the Key Club Calendar, in which they featured pictures of attractive senior girls, and dates of all the sporting events. They also help the handicapped children at the Special Olympics held at Ramona Stadium. Their services were also provided at this years Lester Oaks Parade, and they did valet parking at the Riverside Junior League Ball at the Mission Inn.

Volunteers: Rhonda Mansfield, Karen Kjos, Lisa Frick, Pam Flory, Karen McKeel; (Not Shown) Pam Maxwell, Dana Dicarro, Susie Johns

Poly's Volunteer Club offered their services at Community and General Hospitals. All of the services that they provided to aide the hospital staffs were voluntary. Their help and kindness saved the hospital a great deal of time and money, and thus allowed the hospital to buy new and advanced equipment that may save the lives of many patients. Their services are greatly appreciated by many of the people associated with the hospital. A few of the services included passing out the food, visiting patients, and cleaning rooms.

Girls' League: Mrs. Sara Mills, Julie Young, Vicki Montague, Kelli Holden (President), Lillian Sims, Sabrina Nathanson, Sue Stuart, Yvette Shook.

Poly's Girls' League provided their services within the school. Every girl at Poly is automatically a member of this club, however most of the work was done by these seven girls. The candy canes that are distributed during the Christmas drive were sold through this club. The annual Christmas drive they sponsor provided food, toys and clothes for the needy ones, so they too could enjoy the holiday. The Girls' League also held an annual Apple Polishing Tea in which all of the faculty was provided with a shiny apple, and served punch and cookies. The main goal of Poly's Girls' League was to promote spirit within the school, and they did this quite effectively.

THE CLASS OF 1979

Senior officers monkey around: David Greene, Secretary; Alan Crest, Social Chairman; Caz Zimmer, Vice-President; Gordy Pulsifer, President; and Heather Boyd, Treasurer.

As the school year of 1979 drew to a close many Seniors were quick to say their goodbyes to their Alma Mater. But, if they were to look back over the years, the "KHAKI" class had much to be proud of. During our freshmen year, we showed our spirit by winning the Homecoming skit and float. As sophomores we diligently sold candy bars in preparation for our "unique" prom, and as juniors, we won Spirit Week. Though our Senior year seemed lacking in spirit we accomplished many feats; we saw the birth of the Harvey Harford fan club and the end of conventional float building. Overall the class of '79 has a lot to be proud of and all will remember their years at Poly with great pride.

↑ A group of freshmen huddle in the corner.
↑ Gordy Pulcifer acts as the clumsy narrator.
↑ Brad Lewis brings the storm in senior fashion.

Friday, the thirteenth of October, was the day the seniors put their curse on the freshman class. A cast of seniors, dressed up as frantic freshmen, looked on as witches brewed the upperclassmen's idea of freshmen. While a storm bellowed in the background, the witches cooked the ingredients to come up with the result: PHLEGM.

JUNIORS

1980

SPORTS

The class of 1980 got off to a great start this year by winning the homecoming float competition for the second year in a row. Soon after, they won the ruling class track meet. The class of '80 succeeded in persuading the PTA and the administrators to allow them to hold their prom out of town. As a result of their efforts, the Junior class was able to provide for a spectacular prom.

Under the dedicated direction of their advisors, Mrs. Renee and Mr. Eaton, the Juniors quickly doubled class funds; and later went on to triple that amount to become the wealthiest class in Poly's history.

Sophomores Played

t-shirts and yelling at pep assemblies. But, they resigned themselves to the Junior class by coming in second place with their float "Dracula." Many Sophomores had other interests on their minds instead of float building. The Homecoming season brings out the best and worst in us all.

To the notorious Freshmen who never got anything straight all year, we dedicate this mixed up section to you. When various Freshmen were asked about their first year at Poly, responses ranged from Kerry Gallagher feeling "lost" and thinking this year was "confusing" to Tom Johnson asking, "can we cuss?" Kathy Morgan and Kitty Bernath decided Poly is "better than Gage". When Kim Kamrath was asked to comment on her class she said, "never mind". Allyson Pooley and Evelyn O'Leary both agreed they had fun their first year at Poly. Terry Danials thought her year was easy, while Andrea Aguilar said it was "different then she had expected-harder". What did Freshmen learn about float building? Jennifer Holzrichter, freshmen class president, asked us not to mention the float. Bang Little had "fun building the float, even though no one actually knew what they were doing". As far as Freshmen status or lack of status is concerned, Grace Rosales knows "a few Juniors she would like to can." Bang Little thought he would "get picked on much more", and Blake Campbell is glad his Freshmen year is ending, so he can have more seniority next year. In retrospect, the class of 1982 seems to have a lot going for them and should succeed during their next three years at Poly.

Varsity Endured The Year

After being the 1977 Ivy-League Champs, the Poly Bears had a lot of pressure on them to see if they could regain the title once more. Led by Coach Barry Meier, the Bears tried to perform their best, but first they had to overcome a few obstacles. This was to be "The Year," which was to surpass all other years. Through the determination and effort of the coaches, players, and supporters, the Bears ended up finishing their season with a record of 6-4.

Poly was on an up and down season because they were still trying to find themselves, but as soon as Robert Leaphart began running the Bear's veer offense, Poly picked up the slack by presenting a three-game winning streak. Tim Howard and Tim Hoover have led a number of "one play offensive drives." The leadership of the captains Tim Hoover, Greg Matulich, Robert Leaphart, and Brian MacLean added to the aggressive defensive unit.

The Bears came back, winning these three crucial games for qualifying for CIF as a wildcard pick. Steve Garland and Tim Howard were named to the first team All-Ivy League offense with Robert Leaphart and Pat Maietta on first team defense. Tim Hoover made both second team offense and defense and Ken Adcock made second team defense.

Everything In Its Path

This year's Varsity Water Polo team got off to another outstanding start by winning the Riverside Invitational and La Serna Tournaments. The Aqua Bears defeated last year's C.I.F. 3A champion, Indio, in both tournament finals. They carried this momentum into league play by posting a perfect 7-0 record to take the Ivy League title. Standouts Bret Benter, Dave Greene, Jim Edwards, and Rick Randel all received all league first team honors, while Doug Paulson was voted the Ivy League most valuable player of the year. Coach Dave Almquist led his team into the C.I.F. playoffs, and advanced them all the way to the finals against El Dorado. In a grueling overtime game El Dorado defeated Poly by a score of 18-13. This year's team has set a high standard of excellence for Poly's many future stars to strive for.

↑ Captain Rick Randel helps lead the team to a winning season.
↓ Coach Dave Almquist watches closely as the Aqua Bears destroy another opponent.

←↑ Doug Francisco drills a shot for another Poly goal.

This year's Varsity soccer team started off as a young and inexperienced squad. With the leadership of Coach Tom Tilson the Bear's matured and proved to be one of the Ivy Leagues strongest teams. The team finished their season in third place and advanced to the C.I.F. playoffs where they were defeated by Wilson High School. All League players were Tom Napoli, George Yarmanos, and Jeff DeBellis. Second team honors went to Brian Crance, Don Barry, Craig Thompson, and Mark Pede, while Paul Cotton and Chris Brown received Honorable Mention.

To C.I.F. Playoffs

This year's Junior Varsity team had an excellent season posting an 8-0-2 League record. The team had many fine players that should develop into talented players and help the Varsity squad in years to come.

Front: Jimmy Kollar, Victor Martin, Andre Gonzalez, Steve Patton, Clay Adamkavicius, Tim Thomas. Second: Brian Keith, Greg Haynes, Craig Kennedy, Paul Huiras, Kevin

Rayburn, Wendell Cummings, Brian Peterson. Back: Steve Wallings, Jeff Knee, Rich Lindsey, Bob Kollar, Steve Palladino, Hugo Hernandez, Tom Lowry, Jim Lowry.

- Don Barry punches the ball to a Poly teammate.
- ↑ All League Tom Napoli frightens the goalie with a powerful shot.
- George Yarmanos shows his All League skill as he prepares to pass.
- Paul Bowen out-maneuvers his opponents.

Basketball Leaped

- ← Rick Graves gets the upper hand against a Ramona opponent.
- ↓ Robert Leaphart shows how easy it is to make a one-on-three basket.

- ↑ Rodney Gowens concentrates on sinking another basket from the baseline.
- Robbie Graves takes the punishments as well as the rewards.

Over Opponents

- ← Darryl Gowens intends to show two opponents the proper way to play basketball. Rodney Gowens stuns opponents by walking on air.

Although starting out slow, this year's basketball team gained in experience as they played. Coach Gard named Tom Sheehy as the most improved player. The team compiled an 11-12 overall record and an 8-6 league record. Four of the five starters will return next year.

J.V. Basketball Made It Count

Larry McDonough tries the lay-up as a crowd gathers.

→ Dave Hughes proves to Norco defenders that height isn't the only thing that counts in basketball.

→ Ray Robb takes the outside jumper.

Coach Bob Hayes led the J.V. basketball team to a good 13-9 record. The team captured the annual Christmans tournament in Riverside. Stand out players were Terry Shaw, Mike Connolly, and David Hughes. The J.V. team promised to become a very good team in 1980.

This year's Freshman Basketball team consisted of: Donald Young, Nate Nix, John Myers, Dale Teague, Steve Gaberialson, George Self, Steve Hughes, Dean Birdick, Pat Malone, Richie Ortega, Clint Simmons, and Coach David Mickelson. The team was 6-1 and took first place in their league.

Front: Todd Purdue (Mgr.), Jeff Hicks, Scott Matulis, Jimmy Wight, Mike Connolly, Ron Gomez, Dave Hughes, Chip Hord. Last:

Coach Hayes, Terry Shaw, Robert Hain, Bob Mitsch, Bob Morton, Larry McDonough, Ray Robb, Larry Taylor.

- Terry Shaw gets a knee-up from an opponent for his shot.
- Mike Connolly floats the ball on his fall away jump shot.
- Larry McDonough slips a shot by two defenders.

Golfers Took It All

- John Kopcha successfully pitches his shot onto the green.
- A familiar spot for opponent golf clubs after the ninth hole.

A strong group of players walked the links this year. Led by top golfers, David Pooley and Bruce Tait, this year's golf team captured the Burbank tournament championship. Many juniors are expected to return next year and be a very strong team. Although the golf season was not over, the undefeated team was expected to go into C.I.F. play.

Front: John Kopcha, Fred Havens, Brian Leff, Mel Hawkins, Bruce Tait. Last: Jim Nelson, Eric Edwards, Geoff Holtzrichter, David Pooley, Coach Arlo Gard.

- David Pooley blasts another tee shot right down the center of the fairway.
- Brian Leff anticipates the dropping of the ball, hoping that he will not have another three-putt green.
- Bruce Tait goes ankles out to get his shot to the green.

AquaBears Dominated

Dave Almquist, coach of the league champion boy's swim team, felt that his team was solid and tough in league. In CIF, the team placed ninth overall with fifth place in the freestyle relay of Andy Reickes, Bob Ward, Dave Greene, and Bret Benter, and eighth with the medly relay of Jay Butki, Dave White, Doug Francisco, and Greene.

Individual accomplishments in CIF were from Francisco with twelvth in the 50 yard freestyle. In the 100 freestyle Benter placed eleventh, Ward and Francisco finished ninth and eleventh in the 100 butterfly, with Jeff Scott placing eighth in the 500 yard freestyle.

This years swim team had alot of strong swimmers, and expect many good returning varsity swimmers for next year. Varsity finished the season with a league record of 10-1, with Bob Ward and David Greene as the most valuable swimmers for the season.

Front: Bobby Robinson, Doug Paulson, Dave White, Doug Francisco, Mike Latimer. Second: Brad Randel, Dave Greene, Scott Thor-

ton, Matt Boyd, Bret Benter, Bob Powell, Last: Coach Almquist, Andy Reikes, Rick Randel, Bruce Randel, Robert Ward, Jeff Scott.

Jay Butki rries toward the finish in another freastroke victory.

This year's Varsity Girls' Volleyball team had a smashing season. With an overall record of 12 wins out of 14 matches, they became Ivy champs and qualified for C.I.F. Their attempt at winning C.I.F. was thwarted by rigorous first round competition in the form of Sonora High School, who edged past the Poly girls in a close 2-1 match. Though not matching up to their Varsity counterparts, the girls' J.V. Volleyball team had a relatively successful year with much potential for next year's Varsity team. On Varsity, Angela Melander was chosen both team M.V.P. and Ivy League M.V.P. in addition to making Ivy league 1st team. Julie Ortman also made Ivy league 1st team and Sue Davidson made Ivy League 2nd team.

And Girls Won C.I.F.

They did it! That's right, the Girls' Varsity Basketball team went all the way this year. Now we're not talking League, we're not talking regionals, we're talking all the way to the C.I.F. championships. KOALA proudly presents this page to those magnanimous cagers of the feminine gender that devastated all of their opponents on the way to first place in C.I.F. The Varsity team had a 28-3 overall record, a 13-1 League record, and a 5-0 record in C.I.F. Among Poly's toughest competitors were Righetti and Alta Loma who the girls met in the C.I.F. semi-finals and finals. Among the honors bestowed upon members of the Varsity team, were team M.V.P. and

All Ivy League to Marsha Overton, most improved to Meg Gallagher, and most inspirational and class 3A M.V.P. to Cheryl Miller. The Girls' J.V. Basketball team also had a remarkable season with an overall record of 17-1, and a League record of 13-1, making them League Co-champs. Honors given to J.V. girls included most improved to Mickey Clark and M.V.P. to Barb Murphy.

↑ J.V.: Mickey Clark, Yvette McPherson, Karen Richards, Barb Murphy, Denise Waterman, Leah Newell, Portia Becker, Linda Alvarran, Sonya Chambers, Jan Wight, Debbie Fatten, Chris Nagle, Laquida Long.

↑ "I just had that ball a minute ago!" exclaims Meg Gallagher.

↑ "I could dribble this ball all day," thinks captain Marsha Overton.

↑ Sara Lewis commands the ball to stay as she balances it on her fingertips.

↑ Jan Wight shows her animosity towards photographers as she hurls the ball at KOALA cameraman.

Congratulations!

Girls Tennis

The 1978-1979 Girl's Tennis team had an excellent season, overpowering all the competition they faced in league play. The Ivy League champs reached the quarter finals of the C.I.F. playoffs, and sent six members into the playoffs as individuals. First singles Libby Joseph, second singles Shelley Frey, first doubles Tami Marseilles and Lulu Richardson, and second doubles Carol Paulson and Lisa West-Johnsrud all received all league honors and advanced to the quarter finals of the C.I.F. individuals. The abundant returning talent for next year's team should help the Bears successfully defend their Ivy League title.

- ↓ Sarah Grigsby shows style and grace as she leaps to hit spectacular shots.
- ↑ Carol Paulson runs to the net to win another match.
- ↑ Coach Pat Snelgrove races from court to court to aid her players.
- Lisa West-Johnsrud hits powerful back-hands all season long.

↑ Kristin Busch illustrates excellent style off the blocks.

The varsity Girls Swim Team had another excellent season keeping the fine Poly tradition of winning by taking the Ivy League once more. The performances of each individual swimmer showed the capability of domination in swimming. The team had many strong swimmers with standouts Melanie Rile, Sippy Woodhead, Arlene Low, and Mary Roberge. Each swimmer on the team had great potential to win. The depth of the team was strong and the swimmers for next year will be enthusiastic and willing to take League once more.

→ Polly Sandusky has intense concentration before the start of the race.
→ Casey Raftery anticipates the gun.

Winning Strokes

Front: Mia Tobias, Julie Francisco, Christie Haworth, Alison Pooley, Brenda Wynsma, Christie Littleton. Last: Mia Ashe, Glenda

Low, Beth Morrow, Chris Miller, Deanna Dotta, Jill Simington, Carla Erickson.

The Jay Vee Swim Team followed the Varsity by showing that they can win in the Poly tradition. The determination of these young swimmers was proven by beating their opponents considerably. Many of these swimmers have broken previous records set and plan to break many more. This team had the strength that was needed to win. The Jay Vee swim team has great potential for next year.

← Coach Stricker psyches the team up for another win.

↑ Dana Rasp smiles at a good pitch.

The Girls Swang To Victory

J.V. Front: Sonya Chambers, Laurie Booth, Patty Gawrych, Janet Wight, Patty Feagans, Linda Alvarran, Tammy Shambers. Last: Susie Walker, Renee Overton, Michelle

Clark, Barbara Murphy, Lisa Beal, Aquanetta Gordon, Gloria Alvarran, Pam Galvan.

Becker, Shelly Diederich, Debbie Youngblood, Nikki Cary, Angie Melander, Nora Chagolla, Dana Rasp.

As the softball season approached the end, the varsity team had an overall record of 7-7, and the J.V. team had a league record of 6-1-1. Dana Rasp highlighted her season with a no-hitter.

Gymnasts Flipped To New Heights

Poly's 1979 Gymnastics team was composed of young members, with more than half of the team made up of Freshmen. The team definitely gained strength with the help of "Snelly" an ex-team-mate Jamie LaMonk.

The year was highlighted by an overnight cartwheel-a-thon to earn money for team sweats. Another highlight was the annual Gymnastics-Dance Assembly. Barbara Semones shows the skills on bars that made her the #1 seed. Jenny Dietz exhibits her strength doing a handstand-roll down on beam. Susie Best strikes a beautiful pose. Katie Semones completes her full turn. "Snelly" shows her spotting skills. Susie Gerzel performs one of her four superior moves. Barbara Semones dances through her floor routine.

Pep Squad Put On The Boogie Shoes

This year Poly's Pep Squad made new steps in showing Poly's spirit. Pep Squad made a habit of representing all of Poly's athletic teams instead of just the traditional Football and Basketball teams. This change has definitely brought more spirit to Poly High, as is seen in the great enthusiasm shown at the numerous pep assemblies.

At city competition, Poly was well represented. The JayVee and Freshmen Cheerleaders and the mascots came home with second place trophies and the Flag and Pom Pon girls brought back first place trophies.

Linda Morrow, Commissioner of Pep, takes a minute from her very busy schedule to pose for the KOALA camera. Poly's winning Homecoming bear is show off by Poly's cheerleaders. Poly's and Ramona's Pep Squads come together to perform a pep rally for Poly students.

Irene, Wendy, and Regina served Pep Squad for the entire year. Julie, Patti, and Debbie served for one semester.

- Flag Girls: Rhonda Mansfield, Grace Leggette, Michelle Turner, Linda Jones, Pam Mosby, and (not pictured) Terry Hunt. Pam, Terry, Linda, Michelle, and Rhonda served Pep Squad for the entire year. Grace served for one semester. Linda Morrow and Beverly Nezart root on our winning team. Kitty Wadding, Regina Rooks, and Danice Courtney show our opponents that "We have spirit!"

Varsity Pom Pon Girls: Tracey Moore, Kitty Wadding, Paige Pepper, Danice Courtney, Kay Waddell, and Cathy Knox. Because of her excellent songleading skills, Paige Pepper was selected to represent all of Southern California as a U.S.A. Songleader.

Jay Vee Cheerleaders: Front: Cathy Gatherum, Vicky Cary, Mary Jane Flores. Back: Stacey Middleton, Trish Aguilar, Vicky Buie.

- Terry Hunt and alumnus Donna Graham discuss the situation of an important game.

Against Various Odds, The Students Calculated Their Approach Toward Commencement

← Pep Squad leads the way to enthusiasm.
↑ Loretta Lozano prepares for a difficult test.
↙ Carrie Miller, Peggy Bouwens, Jill Simpson, and Clare Perry, try to gracefully maneuver a picnic lunch.
↓ Angie Ward, Sonya Chambers, and Renee Chambers, complete registration with a sigh of relief.

↑ Temporarily confused, Mr. Davidson can't remember which direction he is headed.

On a larger scale, the world advanced in some notable directions this year. Californians experienced more modest effects of proposition 13 than were originally estimated in spring 1978, when the tax reduction bill was passed. In sports, the L.A. Rams were not especially successful, U.S.C. dominated the Rose Bowl, the L.A. Lakers advanced to the N.B.A. playoffs, and both the Angels and the L.A. Dodgers looked promising. The winter weather was cold and wet in California, the Eastern U.S., and much of Europe. Snow in Palm Springs, and excessive amounts of rain were experienced in Southern California, while violent snow storms paralyzed Chicago and London. Shocking, too, were the deaths of 2 Catholic popes within 2 months, and the bizarre mass suicide of over 900 members of "the people's Temple" in Guyana. Violence outlined another occurrence, the overthrow of Iranian government. There, the shah was forced to leave, while over 100 of his supporters were executed by the new government leader, Khomeini who created an Islamic Republic. Further, the ruthless reign over Uganda by Idi Amin ended in his flight from the country. Meanwhile, hope for Mideastern unrest came in the form of a peace treaty signed by Egyptian President Sadat and Israelian Prime Minister Begin. Finally, Nuclear power was greatly questioned due to a nuclear accident in Harrisberg, Pa. that threatened explosion, yet was fortunately solved without any harmful effects.

Poly High to you all our hearts are true
 And we'll work with heart and hand
 To spread the fame of your honored name
 Throughout the mighty land
 Though the wide world calls from
 Your well loved halls
 Where the green and orange fly
 Will our hearts grow light and our eyes grow bright
 When we sing of Poly High

Then here's a cheer from Alma Mater
 For our beloved Alma Mater
 Here's to the school of sterling worth
 Here's to the best old school on earth
 Stand up and sing and swell the chorus and let the world with praise resound
 And let the colors floating o'er us
 Never touch the ground

Go to trade school-Avoid 4 years of college grueling.

Take a spouse-Advance as a team.

Future-Move ahead-Job challenges

Juniors-your turn to be on top
 Mess around to ease the path

Freshman- more being twerps-Advance 20 spaces

Sophomores-you're half way done PARTY!

Teachers-improve class plans
 Advance 5 spaces.

This is the gameboard upon which we have each planned our own routes, plotted our own strategies, developed our own skills, and taken many chances during 1978-79. For some, this setting will remain the same while their directions and perspectives will change.

for others, this path has been completed and new fields are waiting to be explored; but for all of us, The adventures at Poly High 1978-79 are coming to a close, and we advance now to new games that are just beginning.

Although many awards are given to Poly students, these four represent what are, perhaps, the most prestigious. The Bank of America awards are given in four categories. Each plaque winner competes in a local competition for scholarships and the opportunity to participate in regional competition. This year there will be six co-valedictorians because there are six students with a 4.0 GPA. The co-valedictorians will decide among themselves who will speak at graduation. National Merit Finalists are students who score in the top one half percentile on the PSAT and score well on the SAT. California Girls State and California Boys State representatives are juniors chosen for their excellent citizenship. Each representative becomes part of a mock government so that they may learn more about our state government.

- ↑ Bank of America Plaque winners are: Lollo McFalls (liberal arts), David Eckmann (math/science), Craig Faucher (industrial arts), and Jeff Moore (fine arts).
- National Merit Finalists are: Lollo McFalls, Mike Burke, Kathy Morrison, Pam Cates, and Brian Carleton.
- ↘ This year's California State participants are: Casey Raftery (alternate), Carol Paulson (alternate), Geoff Holzrichter (representative), and Doug Mackey (alternate). Kelli Holden, girls state representative, is not pictured.
- ↓ Co-valedictorians are: Jim Barrie, Lollo McFalls, Elissa Gropen, Ann Strong, David Eckmann, and Tim Hannigan.

AWARD WINNERS TOOK THE PRIZE

For some the night was filled with magic; for others the night is to be forgotten as soon as possible. For the seniors present the memories will be of their last high school formal and the younger people who were present have still more proms to experience, yet none could recreate the superb prom of 1979.

↓ Brad Lewis and Julie Baumer dance the night away.
 ↓ Rick Rust and Laura Metcalf can't bear to be separated even during the fast dances.
 ↓ Todd Whitson and Laura Sparks seek a more romantic atmosphere outside. The weather is perfect - the full moon shines brightly and the air is clear and warm.

↓ Alyssa Charkow helps Mike Marsailles with the difficult task of eating cake. As the beat slows down the couples close in.

“EVERY TIME I

→ The band, Giant City, provides atmosphere as well as superb dancing music.

→ Mark Pede and Michelle Pianalto find very little space to sit down but neither has a complaint.

The 1979 prom was a huge success with 750 people present. The prom was held at the Disneyland Hotel and was planned by Doug Mackey with the help of his officers.

THINK OF YOU''

The 1979 Nominating Convention was a successful combination of entertainment and education. Delegates representing each advisory class votes limiting the race for each ASB office to two candidates. The convention was organized by the 1979 ASB officers, with Leslie Sullivan and Carrie Miller directing the proceedings. Their efforts were effective, and delegates as well as candidates were able to experience the thrills and frustrations of our government system. Following the convention, was a school-wide election that determined the 1979-'80 ASB officers. These future leaders are: President, Geoff Holzrichter; Vice-President, Kevin Boling; Treasurer, Kathy Gatherum; Secretary, Liz Rines; Comm. of Publicity, Brian Crance; Comm. of Activities, Michelle Miller; Comm. of Assemblies and Intramurals, Melissa Rowe; and Comm. of Homecoming and Elections, Donara Donner.

A MOVEMENT TOWARDS A

This year Poly's Commission decided that they needed a new and better constitution. A Constitutional Revision Committee was formed so that the new constitution would be a truly Student Body constitution. The new government has a Commission, a House of Advisory, and a Supreme Court. The constitution has no details, but they are included in the "ASB By-Laws." The Supreme Court will judge cases having to do with students and the constitution and "ASB By-Laws."

- ↑ Janice Graham and Brandon Gaut keep themselves entertained by blowing bubbles.
- Geoff Holzrichter addresses the delegates with the speech that won him his nomination.
- Leslie Sullivan and Shawn Binder look over the new constitution as other students vote.

Geoff Holzrichter, Linda Morrow, Leslie Sullivan, Carrie Miller, Rich Randel, Carolyn Ott, and Doug Mackey did an excellent job controlling this years Nominating Convention.

MORE PROMISING FUTURE

- ← Dan Kreigh and Bill Cramer combined talents to create this years theme poster.
- ↑ David Eckmann, Mike Burke, and Lawrence McFalls threaten the delegates into voting for Liz Blozan.
- ← Manual Villapanado, Poly's 1952 President, lectures on the importance of leadership.
- ← Anthony Harper successfully guards the entrance from all uninvited guests.

VARSITY BASEBALL

First: Colon Howard, Andre Boulais, John Torrenti, Rodney Couch, John Trimble, Tom Wilson, Doug Chez. Second: Rich Graves, Earl Ligon, Ted Milner, Jeff Gabrielson, Scott Stewart, Cornell Ligon, Darryl Berg. Last: Pat Maletta, Hasten Roberts, Randy Harvey, Brad Lewis, Rick Graves, Brad Pounders, Gordon Pulsifer.

The 1979 Varsity baseball team had an outstanding season. The squad compiled a 17-7 record and a championship league record of 10-4. The Ivy Champs also captured the Riverside High Schools Baseball Classic by defeating Arlington High. Pitcher Doug Chez received All League Honorable Mention, and first baseman John Trimble made Second Team. All League First Team honors went to catcher Tom Wilson, outfielder Rick Graves, and infielder Gordon Pulsifer, while Randy Harvey received the Ivy League Most Valuable Player award. The Ivy Champs have had an excellent year, and have set an example for future teams.

Standout Todd Torrenti makes a perfect throw to first.

The 1979 Junior Varsity baseball team has set an example for years to come. The squad posted an almost perfect record of 21-1, with a league record of 13-1. Their only loss came in an extra inning game with Barstow. The league champs led by Coach Tom Jenkins have compiled an excellent record, and will send many valuable players to next years Varsity team.

BIRDIES FLEW WITH GIRLS' BADMINTON

This year's Varsity Badminton did remarkably well for such a young team, by winning nine of their ten League matches and thus becoming Ivy League champs. J.V. did equally well winning all ten of their matches. The Varsity team was stopped in their attempt to win C.I.F. by losing first round to Bolsa Grande in a rigorous match. Honors bestowed upon select team members included Most Valuable Player award to Jeanne Rust and Most Improved to Julie Endo and Sarah Terrett.

← Julie Endo and Paula Cates know that it's the early girl that gets to the birdie.

Varsity: Chris Nagle, Cheryl West, Brenda Benter, Sharon Weingart, Shirley Glick, Jeanne Rust, Bobby Berchtold, Janet Metch, Mrs. Hart, Jennifer Holtzrichter, Susan Bobach, Suzanne Lui, Lisa Strickland, Laurie Maietta, Laurie Endo.

J.V.: Sarah Terrett, Paula Cates, Jane Michelson, Carol Davis, Libby Joseph, Carlene Duncan, Karen Richards, Julie Endo, Kim Eaton, Leah Newell, Mrs. Hart, Kristen O'Kieff, Diane Jenkins, Cathy Morgan, Shawn Lynch, Christy Olsan, Belinda Butt.

↑ Jennifer Holtzrichter moves up in the world.

↑ Laurie Maietta and Laurie Endo show fierce determination in their play.

↑ Cheryl West and Bobby Berchtold figure that if badminton doesn't work out, they can always try out for the ballet.

TENNIS TEAM WOMPED OPPONENTS

Once again the Boy's Tennis team strove to new heights on the courts despite tough competition, over zealous fans, and wild parties. Under the superb leadership of Coach Sabens, the Varsity team amassed an overall record of 13-6 and a League record of 11-1, making them league Champs. J.V. also did well winning 16 of their 18 matches. In C.I.F. competition, Poly beat first round La Canada, but lost to top seeded La Quinta in the second round. Honors to key players included co-M.V.P. awards to Todd Whitson and Joe Nelson, Most Improved award to David Beal, and Most Inspirational to Tim Hanigan.

↑ "See, you don't have to bend your knees to hit the ball," says Scott Matulis.

↑ Robert Hain ponders on whether he should hit to his opponents forehand or backhand.

↑ "Look son, there ain't nothing to this game," exclaims Ralph Decker.

← Dave Beal prepares to show the ball just where it can go.

↑ It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's Joe Nelson and Todd Whitson scrambling for a point.

The Boy's Varsity Volleyball team showed strength and potential throughout the season, even as they displayed their inexperience. The team really worked hard although this work did not always pay off. They placed third place in the all league tournament. The starters of the season were Chip Hord, Mark Lee, Larry McDonough, John Pourroy, Bruce Ward, and team captain Wayne White. The team was young, but they feel next year should be very promising, as many of their players will return more prepared and experienced.

THEIR BEST EFFORT

John Bigelow demonstrates his ability to serve.
The spike is set for the opponent.

The Boy's Jay Vee Volleyball team was weakened by their inexperience. The majority of the team were underclassmen. The starters of the team were John Bigelow, Rob Cross, John Karidakes, Charles Little, Mark Lloyd, and Mark Ward. The team had good defensive players, but they were young and it was hard for them to work with unity. Next year the volleyball team should be more experienced and thus stronger.

Front: John Karidakes, John Bigelow, Russian Valad, Mark Lloyd, Pat Malone. Last: Steve Palladino, Mark Ward, Frank Bidwell,

A HOP, A SKIP, AND A JUMP

The Boys' Varsity finished the year with a record of 2-5, while the J.V.s finished with a record of 6-1. Coach Maurer named most valuable runners as Greg Thomas who broke the school records in the 100 yard dash and the 220 yard dash, and Chris Crisman who broke the school record in the 330 yard low hurdles with a time of 39.1. Most improved was Brian Pounders.
